

Home Communion Trinity Sunday

Let us pray ...

The Lord be with you. And also with you.

Lift up your hearts. We lift them to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

It is right to give our thanks and praise.

It is indeed right, it is our duty & joy, gracious & Holy Father, always & everywhere to give You thanks. In the beginning your Spirit swept across the face of the waters, bringing order & beauty out of chaos.

You formed us in your own image & breathed into us the breath of life. Though we turned away from you, your love remained steadfast, & you sent your only Son Jesus Christ to be the saviour of the world.

At his baptism in the Jordan he was anointed by your Spirit & revealed as your beloved Son. In the power of the Spirit he was sent to preach good news to the poor, to proclaim release to the captives & recovery of sight to the blind, to set at liberty those who are oppressed, & to announce that the time had come when you would save your people.

Sharing our human nature, he died on the cross. Raised again in glory, he lives forever to pray for us. By the gift of the Spirit, whom you have sent in his name, you bring to completion the work of your Son, leading us into all truth, making us a people for your praise & giving us power to proclaim the gospel in all the world.

And so, with all the faithful of every time & place, we join with choirs of angels in the eternal hymn:

Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might, Heaven and earth are full of your glory. Hosanna in the highest. Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Hosanna in the highest.

On the night before he died, the Lord Jesus took bread & gave you thanks. He broke it & gave it to his disciples, saying, "Take this all of you and eat it. This is my body given for you. Do this in remembrance of me."

When supper was ended he took the cup & gave you thanks. He gave it to them, & said; "Drink from it all of you. This is my blood of the new covenant, poured out for all people for the forgiveness of sins.

Do this in remembrance of me.”

And so in remembrance of all his mighty acts, we offer you these gifts, and with them ourselves as a holy living sacrifice.

You send forth your Spirit. You bind us in love.
You renew the face of the earth.

Pour out your Holy Spirit that these gifts of bread & wine may be for us the body & the blood of Christ. Unite us with him and with one another in mission to all the world; and bring us with the whole creation to your heavenly kingdom.

Through Christ, with Christ, in Christ, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, all blessing and honour and glory and power be yours for ever and ever. Amen

We break this bread to share in the body of Christ.

Though we are many, we are one body, because we all share in one bread.

Let's now have a few moments of quiet as we prepare our hearts....

We meet the risen Christ in the breaking of the bread.

I invite you now to draw near in faith & receive the body of Christ given for us. If you are with others you may wish to serve each other or if you are on your own simply take & receive the bread....KNOWING that you are not alone... & now we share in the BLOOD of CHRIST shed for us...

Silence

Let us pray. God of power, may the boldness of your Spirit transform us, may the gentleness of your Spirit lead us, and may the gifts of your Spirit equip us to serve and worship you now and always. Amen

The Spirit of truth lead us into all truth, give us grace to confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, & to proclaim the word & works of God; And the blessing of God the Father, the Son & the Holy Spirit remain with us always. Amen

We go in the power of the Spirit to serve Christ in the world. Amen
